Types of Student Employment, Employment Types for International Students:

International students on an F-1 VISA have specific employment opportunities governed by USA immigration regulations. These employment types are categorized into On-Campus and Off-Campus employment.

On-Campus Employment:

On-campus employment is the most accessible form of employment for F-1 students. It refers to work performed on the school's premises, including jobs with commercial firms that provide services to students (e.g., bookstore, cafeteria).

- ☒ Eligibility: F-1 students may work up to 20 hours per week during academic sessions and full-time during breaks.
- ☒ Authorization: No special USCIS approval required, but students must maintain valid F-1 status.

Off-Campus Employment:

Off-campus employment is allowed under specific conditions and must be related to the student's academic program. It requires prior authorization and includes the following types:

☒ Curricular Practical Training (CPT)

CPT allows F-1 students to engage in employment that is an integral part of their curriculum.

Purpose: Gain practical experience through internships, cooperative education, or practicums.

Eligibility:

- A. Must have completed at least 9 months in lawful F-1 status.
- B. Employment must be directly related to the student's field of study.
- C. Must be part of an established curriculum and offered through the institution.

Workload:

Part-Time CPT: 20 hours or less per week during academic terms.

Full-Time CPT: More than 20 hours per week during breaks or if authorized.

Authorization:

Must be approved by the Designated School Official (DSO); no separate USCIS approval needed.

☒ Optional Practical Training (OPT)

OPT permits temporary employment in the student's field of study before or after completion of the academic program.

Eligibility:

- A. Must be lawfully enrolled on a full-time basis for at least one academic year.
- B. Must be in valid F-1 status.
- C. Employment must be directly related to the student's major.

Duration:

Standard OPT: Up to 12 months per degree level.

STEM OPT Extension: Additional 24 months for STEM-designated programs (total 36 months).

Authorization: Requires application to and approval from USCIS.

☒ Cooperative Education (Co-Op)

Co-op programs blend academic learning with paid, practical work experience in the student's field of study.

Structure: Alternating or parallel periods of classroom study and employment.

Eligibility: Varies by institution; typically coordinated through the university's career services or co-op office.

Examples of Institutions Offering Co-Op:

- A. Drexel University
- B. University of Cincinnati

Important Notes:

- All forms of off-campus employment require prior approval (from DSO and/or USCIS)
- Unauthorized employment may result in serious immigration consequences
- Students should always consult their DSO before accepting any form of employment
